Introduction

We hope your son has had a good start to the academic year and he is enjoying Year 11. At this point, there are approximately just 25 weeks until the first GCSE Exams. We thought it would be useful to outline some key dates and information that you and your sons will find useful over the coming months.

Home Learning and Study Resources

Please encourage and support your son in their studies at home. Your support as parents and carers can make a huge difference to students' motivation and ability to cope with the academic and organisational demands during exams and revision. Here are some study resources that will help:

Pixl Maths and Pixl Lit Apps – Log in details available from Maths/English teachers

BBC Bitesize – an excellent resource with GCSE subject and exam board specific information. Download the Revision App or visit www.bbc.co.uk/education

Exam Board websites: subject-specific past papers and general information, advice and support:

AQA – www.aqa.org.uk, Edexcel – via Pearson - <https://qualifications.pearson.com>, OCR - www.ocr.org.uk
