SIXTH FORM BULLETIN - VOLUME 3

Friday 8th March 2024

Welcome to the third edition of Sixth Form Bulletin. It has been a busy and exciting fortnight with the Geography field trip to Iceland, the French Exchange visit and an Art trip to The National Gallery and Portrait Gallery being just some of the highlights.

With the Public Exams nearly in sight, attendance at school takes on an ever-important role in our students achieving the university places and apprenticeships they have worked so hard for over the course of the past 18 months. With this in mind, we are focusing on the final stage of Year 13's Sixth Form journey, and Mr Butterworth has shared some top tips for exam and revision techniques. With the Year 12's also preparing for their Trial Exam Series in April, we would encourage you all to watch the linked videos focusing on revision strategy and planning.

We very much look forward to seeing parents and carers in school next week for Year 13's final Parents Evening, and would thank all those Year 12 students who have kindly volunteered their time to help on the night.

EXAM FOCUS – Mr Butterworth's Top Tips

Things you can do to aid the reduction of cognitive load:

- Help your child break problems into smaller parts.
- Encourage the use of multiple methods of revision to aid 'chunking information.'
- Help your child to create a calming learning environment get them to turn off their phone
- turn off the music these are distractions and add to cognitive load.
- Reduce the hours they spend at parttime jobs.

Reminder to use the metacognitive techniques I mentioned in the last newsletter.

Year 13s

Our Year 13s have their results assembly on Monday, 11th March. This marks the start of the final phase of their Sixth Form Journey: 'Last Push.'

Their final school parents' evening is on Wednesday, 13th March. There are now approximately 9 weeks until the start of the public exam season.

Students must prioritise their schoolwork and revision, both in and out of school. How are they going to spend their 140 hours (approx.) of study periods?

I would encourage students and parents to watch the linked videos on revision at the end of this message if you haven't already seen them.

Students need to make sure that they are 'match fit' for their exams. This means that they have constructed a revision timetable (including breaks and hobbies) that they can stick to. They should prioritise revising content that they find challenging; remember, we remember more when we 'think hard.' And they should practise writing exam responses in timed conditions as much as possible. Exam technique is a learned skill. How much can they write in 10, 15, 30... minutes? They should know the answer.

Things you can do to assist your child with revision:

Ask them to recall lists of key vocabulary and explain how they link.

Ask them to categorise their revision topics – ask the question 'How does this topic link to the one you did last night?'

Encourage the use of 'Dual Coding' of their notes to aid recall (adding images to concepts to help to remember them).

Encourage variety in revision methods.

Ask to see revision that has been created in each of your child's planned study period sessions.

EXAM FOCUS – Mr Butterworth's Top Tips

Year 12s

Our Year 12s have their first Trial Exam Series during the week commencing 22nd April. 4 school weeks (6 weeks including the Easter holidays).

As above, students need to see revision as an ongoing process. If they haven't started using retrieval activities to test what information they have committed to their long-term memory, they should start now (for example, blank page retrieval - 'brain dumps', Cornell Notes, flash cards and mind maps). They should practise writing responses in timed conditions and consider the above advice.

NB: If students have any questions about exams, they should speak to their subject teacher and/or the relevant Head of Department.

The SECOND VIDEO - Revision Guidance Part 2: The best strategies for high impact revision linked here

Key takeaways:

- ⇒ We remember what we think hard about.
- ⇒ We remember information better when we space out recalling it over time.
- ⇒ Revision needs planning.

Year 13 Iceland Trip—February 2024

By Mr James (Head of Geography)

The annual trip to Iceland took place last week where 33 of our finest Year 13 Geography legends spent five unforgettable days in the "Land of Fire and Ice". Dodging the volcanic eruption of the Reykjanes peninsula by a matter of days the students were able to witness the awe and wonder of this wonderful country first hand on a fun-packed and busy visit.

As well as taking in the natural wonder of some of the world's most spectacular waterfalls and the globally famous Black Beach, our intrepid Geographers snorkelled in between two tectonic plates – plunging their cold faces into 2 degree glacial waters to see crystal blue visibility right down to the bottom of the 20m+ fissure. Words cannot describe what a unique experience this is!

Continuing the active nature of the trip, students walked up the electric blue ice of the ash tinged Sólheimajökull glacier, culminating in them demonstrating their physical skills in a 20 metre ice climb wearing crampons and swinging an ice axe.

As well as visiting the unbelievable lava show (where molten lava is poured into a room in front of your eyes), undertaking a 4D Flyover Iceland experience, and walking in lava caves and tunnels, the highlight of the trip for many was the visit to the Sky Lagoon. Less famous than it's compatriot, The Blue Lagoon, the Sky Lagoon offered students a chance to bathe in 40 degree geothermal pools overlooking the North Atlantic Ocean as well as offsetting this with an attempt to clock up as many minutes as possible in the 10 degree plunge pool. The rumours of Harry Burgess hitting the 10 minute mark are currently unverified!

My Geography Iceland Trip Experience 2024 - By Harry Burgess

Wow where do I start! What an amazing, eye—opening and thoroughly enjoyable trip with 33 young geography legends plus three slightly more senior geography legends.

The trip was the perfect detox for many of us after some intense mock examinations and was action packed with lots of thrilling activities such as ice wall climbing, glacial walks and snorkelling (between the Eurasian and American plate) to name a few. Nevertheless, throughout the trip the team learnt lots of important case study detail about the volcanoes and surrounding landscapes that was provided by our very knowledgeable tour guide Arnbjorg, who also helped to correct the poorly pronunciations of a famous volcano Eyjafjallajökull that Mr GIA himself (Mr McCulloch) failed to articulate.

In summary a great trip that not only created mindful bonds between the students and the stunning geography but also between some students.... I am sure I speak for everyone when I say this, we all could not be any more grateful for all the logistical organisation and planning that went into what was a memorable trip. Mr McCulloch and Mr James are true geography legends and a credit to the increasingly popular subject of Geography A level and the department (with a huge shout out to honorary geography legend Miss Hutchings!)

Year 13 Fine Art

NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY

NATIONAL GALLERY

Our A-Level Fine Art students took part in a fantastic trip to the National Gallery and National Portrait Gallery this week. The aim of the visit was to explore these vast collections to gather information and visual research to fuel ideas for their final exam units. The students used the opportunity really well, sketching in the galleries and generating excellent mini sketchbooks capturing their experiences in line with their chosen topic titles. Prizes were awarded to Amelia Alders and Ella Fraser for their exemplary sketchbook work! The work they completed whilst on the visit was extremely beneficial and such a great opportunity to see important works of art in the flesh. An enjoyable experience was had by all!

Year 12 French Study Day and Exchange Visit February 2024

Recently, our Year 12 French students joined students and teachers from LPGS for a Hodder KS5 French Study Day at Regent's University London to consolidate their understanding of analysis of literary works for their Literature and Film Paper 2 Exam.

The French exchange students visited LPSB & LPGS Yr12 French A-level students at LPSB for the first time on 8th February. They did a tour of the school led by our Yr12 French A-level students. Then French and UK students spent two lessons interacting through activities such as 'Find someone who', 'Get to know you bingo' and 'Two truths and a lie about myself', using both French and English to communicate. The day ended with a game of 'Loupgarou' (werewolf). French and UK students then exchanged contact details and some accompanied French exchange students to the Glades in Bromley for some dinner. We are planning a visit to our French exchange students' school in Paris sometime next academic year.

Year 12 Engineers

Miss Norton—Head of Design & Technology

The Engineers in year 12 have been learning and researching about design movements for their A level Component 1. Today they did some fabulous presentations in class. Some students showed their application of their knowledge by highlighting where the past design movements are still used in society today. Below is an excellent example created by Joshua Hall that shows how the TV programme "In the night garden" is inspired by the Memphis design movement and the swatch watches of the 90's. Maybe some of you still remember owning one!

Other outstanding presentations given today were from Harry Archer, Phoebe Ceuppens, Reece Widdis, Jake Lloyd, and examples below are from presentations of Noah Easington-Williams (Art Deco), Jaimie Gill (Streamlining), Philip Noble (The William Morris). Very well done to all involved, it was a privilege to watch you present your work. Miss Norton, Head of Design and Technology

Characteristics of Art Deco

Art Deco designs often feature geometric shapes such as rectangles, triangles, and circles, creating a sense of symmetry and order.

- + Symmetry and Repetition: Designs are characterized by symmetrical patterns and repetitive motifs, reflecting the influence of industrialization and modern technology.
- Luxurious Materials: Art Deco embraces the use of luxurious materials such as gold, chrome, glass, and exotic woods, emphasizing opulence and sophistication.
- Bold Colours: Vibrant colours like red, blue, and green are commonly used, often in contrasting colour schemes to create visual impact.
- Streamlined and Sleek Designs: Art Deco emphasizes sleek, streamlined forms inspired by modern technology and industrial progress, reflecting a dynamic and forwardlooking aesthetic

William Morris 1834 - 1896

- William Morris was a British textile designer, architect, writer, poet and social activist.
- He helped set up workers' guilds to empower designers creating their own products. He was a pioneer of the Arts and Crafts Movement which - has greatly influenced design and production principles. Morris lived and worked during the Victorian era. He produced decorative art in a range of products including textiles, furniture, wallpaper, stained glass windows, book design and tapestry. His patterns were inspired by the natural world
- Morris started a fine art craft company with his wife and in 1861, they began to make soft furnishings, furniture, tableware and wallpaper.

Morris contributed towards the long lifespan of products through his ethos of timeless design using craftsmanship and quality materials. This was a contrast to the growing culture of disposable products. His methods were an early form of sustainable design which we observe today

Many of Morris' designs are still in production and have influenced the design styles of many companies.

- This was a social and design movement that emerged during the late Victorian period as a reaction to the loss of traditional skills due to the Industrial Revolution
  - It was characterised by its resistance to industrialisation -it sought to preserve the skills of craftsmen, promote quality materials and introduce the joy and satisfaction of handmade goods.
  - However, it was not completely against machine production so some the designs used both.

"Have nothing in your house that you do not know to be useful, or believe to be beautiful"

His Influence and Ideology

- William Morris influenced design and production ideas.
- He supported the use of high quality materials and traditional production techniques, rejecting mass produced goods in favour of craftsmanship. Morris believed that good design and
- workmanship added to the quality of life of the user, so each object needed to be aesthetically pleasing as well as functional.

Arts and Crafts Movement in Modern Design and

- The Movement faded over time, but its principles continue to influence modern
- design and production methods. Handcrafted and unique goods are popular and are often seen as luxury items in today's mass-produced culture.
- Many of the ideas about sustainability, craftsmanship, and respect for materials have re-emerged in the  $21^{\infty}$  century.
- Today's emphasis on sustainability and ethical production echo the principles laid down by William Morris and the Arts and Crafts Movement.

WELL DONE

EXAMPLE:

His Impact on Product Development

- This is one of Raymond Lowey's famous pieces of streamlining and we can see throughout the trains structure that it looks very streamlined and also very aerodynamic as well
- How the structure of the train is kept in the same shape all the way through
- We can also see how the tender matches the shape of the back of the engine
- How the outer structure of the train overlaps the wheels as well instead of stopping when they start

- The bumper at the start of the train doesn't stop straight away it curves around and flows with the trains body
- The bumper at the start of the train doesn't stop straight away it curves around and flows with the trains body
- The lines that are painted around the train Give off the illusion it is flying through the wind
- The use of the tender having the same design to still give off the streamline effect
  - How the funnel of the train follows the same design principles
  - Overall, this train is a piece of art that had actually inspired equally famous designs that had made history in the architecture world

Year 12 Ambassadors

On Wednesday evening, Gonville & Caius College, Cambridge University hosted their South London Choral Awards in our Main Performance Hall.

This competition has grown out of their outreach work with London Link Boroughs and our very own LPSB Chamber Choir performed in the final.

Year 12 Photography students, Jade Warwick and Christina Orefice, kindly volunteered to photograph the proceedings and Music student Monty Morris gave his time and kindly assisted with the technical and sound aspect of the evening.

"Jade Warwick and Christina Orefice are wonderful Photography students who work incredibly hard and always volunteer to support the school. They, along with Niamh Abbott and James Wickham, have also shot the Year 13 Year Book photographs and have supported the dept with open evenings, spreading the word and acting as fantastic ambassadors for our school!"

Ms Stone, Head of Graphics and Photography

"Christina and Jade were fabulous and the evening went really well. Thank so much for your help with this – it really is appreciated. I was also very grateful to Monty who supported the event on the technical side."

Last week we had our first Kent 7s Rugby tournament. After the pool stages, the team was placed in 3rd and did not progress to the semi finals due to conceding one more try than Gravesend. A real shame ,but this was the first 7s tournament for the Girls team and will give them much experience for the upcoming Northampton Saints and Rosslyn Park 7s. Well done to all the team!

Netball News....

A Team.

A trip to visit Reigate this week with our 2 teams. Our girls were out in force ready for the challenge as Reigate are always tough opposition.

Our first Team had a strong start taking a lead by 7 goals. The defence forced errors and the turnovers were taken to goal.

Reigate fought back hard in the third and we were only 2 up.

Taking the court in the fourth quarter we were determined to keep ahead, working hard to drive forward onto ball and go strong on attack coupled with the defence shutting down their space to turn over ball. Communication was key and in abundance. They took the victory by 1.

25/24 Win LPSB POM - LIBBY JAMES

B Team

After a slow start with a first quarter that left them 3-10 down the team rallied. Their positional play improved as did their passing.

Better communication in the third quarter and they levelled the score, the final result in losing only by one goal. This was an impressive performance by all that played. Very well done.

A word from the Library...

The library has taken delivery of many new books in recent weeks and there is a large quantity which may be appealing to our Sixth Form students. Here are a few suggestions.

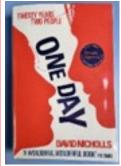

For years, rumors of the 'Marsh Girl' have haunted Barkley Cove, a quiet town on the North Carolina coast. So in late 1969, when handsome Chase Andrews is found dead, the locals immediately suspect Kya Clark, the so-called Marsh Girl. But Kya is not what they say. Sensitive and intelligent, she has survived for years alone in the marsh that she calls home, finding friends in the gulls and lessons in the sand. Then the time comes when she yearns to be touched and loved. When two young men from town become intrigued by her wild beauty, Kya opens herself to a new life - until the unthinkable happens.

Explore the incredible history of Afro hair. The Story of Afro Hair celebrates the fashion and styles of Afro hair over the last 5,000 years. From plaits to the Gibson Girl, cornrows to locks, the hi-top fade to funki dreds, The Story of Afro Hair is the ultimate book of Afro hair stories. Kicking off with an explanation of how Afro hair type grows and why, The Story of Afro Hair then takes us right back to the politics and fashion of Ancient Egypt.

15th July 1988. Emma and Dexter meet for the first time on the night of their graduation. Tomorrow they must go their separate ways.

So where will they be on this one day next year? And the year after that?

And every year that follows?
