Langley Park School for Boys

SIXTH FORM BULLETIN - VOLUME 8

Friday 14th June 2024

I have been so impressed with how Year 13 have conducted themselves throughout the external examination period. I see you all around the hubs, ILAs and library with your final preparations and I really hope that when you receive your results in the summer each and every one of you will achieve the greatest. It is so nice to hear of your future plans whether they be a relaxing holiday in the summer or acquiring work experience and part time employment.

One of my final tasks for Year 13 is to prepare for your leavers celebration on Monday 24th June. I have received so many wonderful photos showing your time with us and as I look at all of your comments in the yearbook it is really encouraging to read about your memories which have all been very positive. This time next year it will be our Year 12s turn but for them now we can't wait to hear how your work experience week has gone and then of course there are the final preparations for electing our Senior Prefects, School Captains and Deputies as well as the last push to get ready for Year 13. As always I wish you all the very best in the coming weeks.

Mr Edwards

Director of Sixth Form

UP Learn

Support for Students Studying Maths, Economics, Psychology and The Sciences

All students who purchased Up Learn by 14th May should have received an email from Up Learn to their school email address with details about how to set up their account.

More than 70 students have signed up, and we hope that they enjoy making use of this resource over the coming weeks.

Our next signup update is Monday 1st July. This will enable students to make use of the resources during the last weeks of term and over the summer.

A reminder that LPSB have formed an agreement with “Up Learn” to be able to offer all students subsidised places on their courses. We have trialled Up Learn with our current Year 13 cohort and have received very positive feedback from them and other schools.

What is Up Learn?

Up Learn describes itself as “a one-stop-shop for independent learning across a whole range of STEM subjects”.

These subjects are:

Mathematics

Economics

Psychology

Physics

*Chemistry

*Biology

You might want to watch some of Up Learn’s student stories: CLICK HERE

When will they be able to start using it?

To use Up Learn before the summer break, all sign-ups must be made by midnight on Monday 1st July.

Mr Gallagher'

The Langley Media and Film Oscars!

As we move towards the very last knockings of Year 13's exams, it was a great pleasure to be able to take a chance to look back over some of the amazing work they have produced this year at the Langley Media and Film Oscars. The quality of pieces on display was extraordinary as we saw the unbounded creativity of the film-makers and their actors. The works were shot through with humour, emotional heft and technical and narrative sophistication. We laughed, we gasped, we cried (repeatedly and extensively in the case of at least one unnamed colleague). Huge congratulations to all the winners and nominees, and enormous thanks to Mr Costello and his department for putting together such a sparkling night.

Celebrating Success!

Congratulations to Robert O'Donnell in Year 12 for having his artwork 'Croydon Pub' accepted for the Royal Academy Young Artist's Summer Show online. Robert was exploring decay and abandoned spaces leading him to create this replica of an abandoned pub in Croydon with clay. He then took the sculpture to the location to photograph his piece next to its influence. Well done Robert for an exciting artwork. Please see his work at the online exhibition at <https://youngartists.royalacademy.org.uk/> from July 16th.

The NHS Volunteer Celebration Awards

On Friday 7th June 2024, these 4 students: Ben Gill, Jade Warwick, Tirion Hill and Charlie Pickup were invited to attend the NHS Volunteer Celebration event over at Kings College, Denmark Hill.

This was a special occasion to thank all the volunteers that give up their time to support the NHS.

Langley Boys have a special partnership with Bethlem Hospital, where our students volunteer weekly in the community centre, interacting with, and supporting the in-patients. This is offered to our Med Prep society, psychology students and any student wishing to help in the community. All LPSB students undergo an extensive training programme before they start. We would like to congratulate all our students who give up their time to do this worthwhile and important role. Zoe Vasquez-Sanchez from Bethlem Hospital invited these students to say a special thank you for their commitment to the volunteering role this year.

Celebrating Success!

LPSB Green Badge Ambassadors

We are delighted to introduce our first LPSB Green Badge Ambassadors. They have completed mental health training with our school counsellor, Mrs Bullen. They have also made regular contributions to our Mental Health Society. As representatives of the Mental Health Society, the Green Badge Ambassadors will act as a student led support system for peers.

Congratulations and thank you to:-

Abigail Coates
Fraser Jackson
Cillian Tookey
Luke Tierney
Oscar Child
George Pretty
Silke Carter

We are proud of these sixth form role models and are looking to appoint more Green Badge Ambassadors in the future.

Celebrating Success!

We are delighted that several Year 13s have successfully secured Apprenticeships over the last few months. The application process can be rigorous and challenging, especially when also studying for exams and it is a testament to their determination, professionalism and talent that they have achieved successful outcomes. We will be highlighting and congratulating Year 13 students each week for the remainder of the term. This week we would like to congratulate Juanito who has shared his insight into the application process and some top tips for fellow students still on the application journey!

Juanito: Level 4 Business Development Apprentice, Carrington Blake

The role:

Telesales and Business Development

18 month duration

Why did you apply?

I was very lucky as the first apprenticeship I applied for got back to me and offered me an interview and I managed to secure the job position. I knew I wanted to work in business development, so this role is perfect for me.

1. Always double check and reread emails for any spelling mistakes and to make sure grammar is on point
2. Reply back to emails in a timely manner.
3. When I got the interview, I made sure I was on time and wore a shirt and tie to give a good professional first impression.
4. Make sure to do research on the company beforehand, this proved useful as I was able to answer the questions I was asked during the interview.
5. Also make sure to ask good questions too, for example, "What does the average working day like?" and "What is the team like?"
6. Just make sure you are confident and have a notepad near you with details and you will be fine!

If any other student would like to share their Apprenticeship journey, please see us in the Careers Hub, room 153.

Year 12 Geography Field Trip

Year 12 Geography Fieldwork

Our Year 12 Geographers have started their independent investigations down on the South Coast on a series of fieldtrips down to Birling Gap and Camber Sands in East Sussex. Travelling by minibus down to both gorgeous coastal locations the students embarked on the data collection section of their non-examination assessment. The course-work they will produce forms 20% of their final grade, so it was brilliant to see the effort and endeavour they put in to exploring and investigating the two contrasting environments. The students develop their own research questions and lines of enquiry, so it's been fantastic to see such a diligent group of students taking ownership over their research.

Broadly, the students are either investigating the varying causes of coastal recession at Birling Gap, which forms part of the spectacular Seven Sisters coastline or they will be looking into the human causes of damage to the dunes at Camber Sands. Every year we are so impressed by the work rate and effort and of course, the understandable enthusiasm for getting out and doing some Geography in the open air!

Thanks to all the Geography teachers involved for their time and effort, to Mr Game for his outstanding minibus driving and, most of all, the students for being Geography Legends as always!

Next Steps

Work Experience

Next week Year 12 are out on their work experience placements. We appreciate it has been challenging to find suitable placements and would like to congratulate all those students who have found a position, as well as thanking families for their support. We have a handful of students without an in-person placement. If students are without a placement, they will be expected to come into school for registration and complete virtual work experiences. An email will be going home to families directly affected.

Many thanks
Careers

Lloyds- insight day

Over half term 30 of our amazing sixth form students attended a tour and talk at Lloyds, hosted by alumni George Squibb, who left sixth form last year to pursue an apprenticeship with Lloyds. George is in his first year and loving every moment of this new chapter and students were inspired as he toured us round this iconic building in the heart of London. We learnt about the 300-year history of Lloyds as an insurance marketplace, their apprenticeship programme and the many opportunities available to young people starting their career in the industry. The day culminated in a networking event, where our students were given the opportunity to talk to current apprentices about their role and experiences of the company, plus how to network and make the most out of upcoming insight days. An amazing opportunity for the students! We would like to congratulate them on their professionalism and taking the time out of their half-term to invest in their future.

Med Prep- year 12 PBL session

We were delighted to have medical student Fraser Beard- LPSB alumni 2020, in the careers hub to run a PBL (problem-based learning) session with our year 12 Med Prep group.

PBL is the preferred teaching style at many medical schools these days, and allows students to learn through case studies, looking at patient history, medical notes such as ECGs, haemodynamic data, and family history. Fraser led the students in case about a young 14-year-old male with centralised chest pain. The students were then able to talk through the case and come up with a diagnosis of HOCM- hypertrophic obstructive cardiomyopathy. This was an innovative way to teach, as our students were able to provide their own reasoning based on the information. He also discussed the Gillick competencies and Fraser guidelines which students should know about when treating children. Fraser is now a 4th year medical student at Hull and York medical school and wishes to specialise in remote medicine one day. He regularly comes back to support LPSB Med prep.

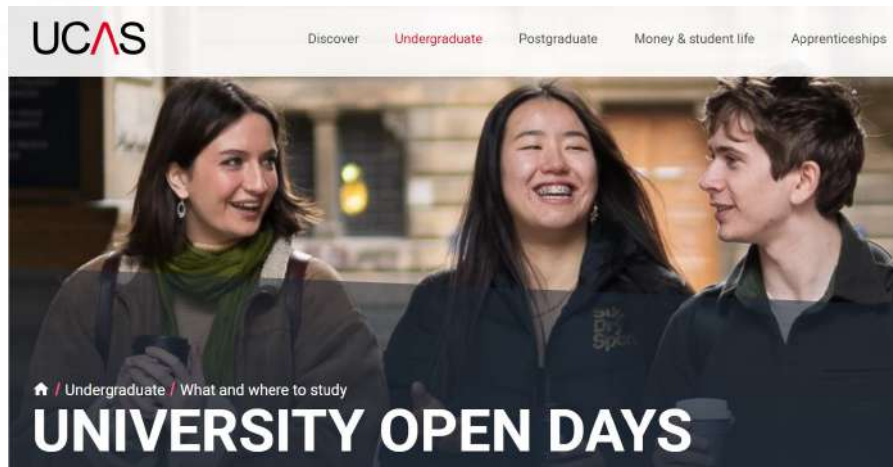

~Med Prep is the society that supports sixth formers with the additional criteria needed to apply for medicine, dentistry, and veterinary science. Please see Mrs Hasan, room 309 for details.
