

The Stuarts

Watch Elizabeth's Ghost: The Afterlife of the Queen in the Stuart Era by Professor Carole Levin
<https://tinyurl.com/y87qcc7l>
 Exploring the lasting impact of Queen Elizabeth on the Stuart era

Listen to the BBC programme In Our Time: The Divine Right of Kings
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b0080xph#in=collection:p01hcx7p>
 Exploring a key idea that dominated Stuart political thought

Use the internet or wider reading to research and complete short key profiles of the major rulers of this period: James I, Charles I, Oliver Cromwell, Charles II and James II
 Include major key dates, events, personality traits

Watch the Channel 4 documentary on the attempt to assassinate James I – the Gunpowder Plot
<https://tinyurl.com/yboesa42>

Create a free account on JSTOR and search for articles about Stuart England.

www.jstor.org/

For example: 'Kingship and Counsel' by Jacqueline Rose.

<https://www.jstor.org/stable/23017282>

Italy and Fascism

Listen to the BBC programme In Our Time: Garibaldi and the Risorgimento
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b083qx9j>
 Excellent background listening to our period about the lead up to the formation of Italy in 1870.

Conduct your own research on the internet to create a timeline of Benito Mussolini's Rise to power between 1918-1922. Try this as a good place to start:

<https://tinyurl.com/ydhgowz5>

Complete a full character profile of Mussolini in the format of a CV starting from when he gained power in 1922.

Watch "FASCIST VOICES. An Intimate History of Mussolini's Italy"
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=THzw\_C5uPsw
 The historian Christopher Duggan in conversation about his book exploring the cult of 'Il Duce' and Mussolini's relationship with the Italian people

Create a free account on JSTOR and search for articles about Mussolini's Italy.

www.jstor.org/

For example: 'Remembering Mussolini' by Charles F. Delzell.
<https://www.jstor.org/stable/40257305>

